Who is Eligible for Services?

All clients of the Family Court whose case has been opened and is classified by appropriate Family Court personnel as an active case or City Court clients assigned to the Title II funded Deputy Juvenile Officer shall be eligible for counseling, casework services, and/or any and all other services.

The services are voluntary in informal cases and required when a juvenile is under Official Court Supervision.

Please note: The contractual agency/vendor shall reserve the right to accept or reject the referral.

Referrals: Who can make them?

Family Contracted Services referrals can be generated from any Family Court Deputy Juvenile Officer.

Who monitors the cases?

While a family and/or juvenile is receiving Family Contracted Services, the Deputy Juvenile Officer assigned will maintain contact with the family as well as the agency/vendor in order to monitor and support services provided

Progress reports are provided to the Deputy Juvenile Officer by the contracted agency/vendor.

The Family Contracted Services Program Liaison coordinates and supports a positive working relationship between vendors and the Family Court.
